

Cruising the Nile – Victorian Style

in aid of
THE SCOTTISH EGYPTIAN
ARCHAEOLOGICAL TRUST

Three Victorian Ladies,
Florence Nightingale, Agnes Smith and Amelia Edwards recorded their adventures sailing from Cairo to Abu Simbel in the 19th century.

In a programme of words and pictures, Richard Ellis will introduce the three ladies' recollections, which will be read by Moyra Cumming, Margaret Marr and Padi Mathieson. Afterwards there will be a reception and an opportunity to learn more about the work of the Trust in supporting the Saqqara Geophysical Survey.

Cruising the Nile – Victorian Style is a programme of words and pictures to be presented at the Stewarts' Melville Performing Arts Centre, Queensferry Road, Edinburgh, on Wednesday 5th May at 7.30p.m.

Tickets at £10.00 each will be available from the end of March, 2010 from:
